August 14, 2022 August 13th Festival 11:00 a.m. Service

Watchword for the Week – Let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us. Looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfector of our faith. Hebrews 12:2

Welcome to our service of worship on this special day of celebration in the Moravian Church. On August 13, 1727, a group of quarreling Christians living on the estate of Count Nicholas Ludwig von Zinzendorf experienced unity in Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. This event marked the beginning of the Renewed Moravian Church. As God gave a fresh outpouring of His Holy Spirit to those gathered at the Berthelsdorf Chapel long ago, we pray He will pour it out freshly upon us as we worship and share in Holy Communion.

If you are visiting with us today we are especially glad you are here. Please take a moment to add your name, address and phone number to the blue Friendship Register as it is passed down the pew. We consider you an honored guest and hope that you will return and worship with us in the weeks to come. If you are looking for a church home, we would love to talk with you about joining the Friedberg church family.

The Moravian Church practices open communion. All who have been baptized and understand the significance of this holy meal are welcome to receive it. The pastors and acolytes will bring the elements from the communion table and serve the congregation in the pews. All who desire to receive Holy Communion are asked to stand, two rows at a time. To receive the bread, extend your right hand, palm up, and you will be served a small wafer. For the cup, the tray will be extended so that you may take one of the cups. Please wait until all have been served each element so that the entire congregation may partake together.

Attendance at Holy Communion is a very important aspect of your relationship with God and fellow members of the Church. For this reason, we keep record of those who attend our services of Holy Communion. If you plan to receive communion today, please fill out one of the communion attendance cards, located in the pew rack, and place in the offering plate later in the service.

Gluten-free communion wafers. The front row of the section of pews immediately to the right of the pulpit is reserved for those who need to receive gluten-free communion wafers. You may move to that row before worship begins, during the opening hymn or when we exchange the right hand of fellowship at the beginning of the communion liturgy.

The flowers in the sanctuary today are given by Tommy and Janet Williamson in thankfulness for God's many blessings, our family, our church family and the opportunity to celebrate our 52nd wedding anniversary tomorrow, August 15. All the thanks and glory go to God.

Please make plans to join us next Sunday as we celebrate Children's Lovefeast. There will not be an 8:30 a.m. service next Sunday.

Semi-Annual Contribution Statements are ready and will be distributed by Sherri Phillips today. If you have any questions about your statement, please contact Sandra Pickens at (336) 764-1872.

All parents who have a child in children's church will be required to physically come down to the AV room on the first floor of the Family Life Center and sign their child out before they are released at the end of worship.

Baylor Wyatt Long, infant son of Will and Kaci Long, was baptized at Friedberg on Friday, August 5, 2022. His sponsors were Jim and Keri Williams, his grandparents.

The Women's Fellowship needs volunteers for the Ways and Means committee for 2023 and 2024. Please contact Martha Thomas (336-830-2157) or Sue Freitag (336-403-6445) if you are interested in serving.

The Monthly Outreach Opportunity for August and September is collecting school supplies for our local partner schools: Friedberg Elementary, Kimmel Farm Elementary, and Griffith Elementary. The items donated will be given to each school for students who cannot buy the supplies they need. You can find the list of specific items needed in the bulletin, on the bulletin board behind the sanctuary, the website and in your Sunday School classroom. You can put donations in the bins located behind the sanctuary and in the narthex. Please let Jennifer Boles or Marcia Reich know if you have any questions or suggestions for the Monthly Outreach Opportunity. Thanks for your help!
